The Challenge Facing Young Readers

- Children are spending increasing amounts of time on screens and passive digital entertainment.
- Reading for pleasure is declining.
- Many families struggle to establish consistent reading routines.
- Schools are expected to support literacy, character development, and life skills with limited classroom time.
- Teachers cannot continuously monitor or reinforce positive habits outside school.
- Parents want practical ways to encourage responsibility, kindness, and independence at home.

What Schools Are Looking For

- Strong literacy foundations.
- Meaningful parent engagement.
- Character and values education.
- Improved student responsibility and self-discipline.
- Inclusive learning opportunities.
- Measurable participation and outcomes.
- Solutions that do not increase teacher workload

A New Approach: Read. Act. Grow.

GrandpaStories combines engaging stories with real-world missions that encourage children to practice positive habits at home.

1 READ STORY

Children read a story. Lumo the Elf invites them to begin an exciting adventure!

Great reading!
Let's do a mission now!

2 COMPLETE REAL-WORLD MISSIONS

Complete simple, age-appropriate missions at home.

 Make my bed	 Put toys away	 Fold clothes	 Water plants
 Help parents	 Organise books	 Practise kindness	 Read with a sibling

Parents confirm missions in the app every day. Every tick counts!

3 EARN POINTS & IMPROVE

Children earn points, level up, and build positive habits every day!

GREAT JOB!
You earned 250 POINTS!

Better habits
Better you
Better every day!

Reading becomes the gateway to positive action!

Read, Do Good,
Earn Points,
Grow Every Day!
Let's go!

How the Program Works

Step 1 – Read

Children read age-appropriate stories independently, with parents, or using the read-aloud feature.

Step 2 – Complete Missions

Lumo provides simple daily challenges that encourage responsibility, kindness, and healthy habits.

Step 3 – Earn Achievement Levels

Children accumulate points and progress through achievement levels such as: • Iron Explorer, • Silver Explorer, • Gold Explorer, • Diamond Explorer

Every child has the opportunity to succeed.

Step 4 – School Recognition

Schools may recognise outstanding participation through monthly certificates, badges, stars, or assembly recognition.

GrandpaStories provides all tracking and reporting.

Teacher involvement is minimal.

Features That Support Every Family
